GETTYSBURG, WEDNESDAY MARCH 21st, 1923.

MANY CHILDREN HAVE MEASLES

Twenty Three Cases Reported To Health Officer In Last Ten Days.

14 SINCE LAST SATURDAY

Prosecutions Will Follow Instances Where Report Is Not Made. No Cases Have Resulted Fatally.

No less than 23 cases of measles exist among children of school age in Gettysburg at the present time, leading health authorities to express the belief today that an epidemic of this form of children's sickness is now prevalent in the community.

Twenty three homes were placarded for measles within the last ten days by Erle Deardorff, borough health officer. Of this number, fourteen have been placed on the quarantined list since last Saturday.

Belief was expressed by Officer Deardorff today that there are other children in Gettysburg suffering from the malady, whose cases have not been reported to him, because the parents are attempting to cure them without calling in a physician. Immediate action will be taken against parents having children ill with measles, who do not report the fact to the proper authorities, Mr. Deardorff said. Fine or imprisonment is the penalty for failure to obey the law which requires the reporting of any communicable disease to the proper authorities.

In connection with the present outbreak of measles, Mr. Deardorff today made public some interesting figures on the number of communicable diseases in Gettysburg during 1922 and up to the present time this year.

During last year, there were forty eight cases of communicable diseases reported in Gettysburg, Mr. Deardorff said. Of this number only four were cases of measles.

SPRING COMES WITH JUMP IN MERCURY

Fruit Growers Are Jubilant Over Winter's Parting Shot Monday And Tuesday.

With the official opening of Spring at 10:29 this morning, the passing of winter seemed to be realized in fact as well as fancy. The cold weather of Tuesday was dissipated under the rays of a benign sun so rapidly that the mercury rose from 30 degrees to nearly 50 by noon.

The last fling that winter took at the season prior to his departure, however much it incurred the wrath of residents whose visions of Spring were aroused on Sunday, was more than welcomed by orchardists and fruit growers here. To them, winter's parting shot was a blessing without disguise.

The blossoms of apple, pear, peach, plum and quince were not sufficiently advanced to be harmed by the last cold spell, which only served to still further postpone their development. The opinion is expressed by one of the largest fruit growers of the county that the trees were almost certainly retarded sufficiently to escape any further heavy frosts unless they occur much later than April.

The flareback of the frost-kings which caused such loss to the fruit crop in the county last year took place on March 30.

TO PROBE ROAD WORK FUNDS

Borough Representatives Interested In Additional Road Building.

Representatives of Gettysburg and Fairfield, who are interested in the building of a hard-surfaced road from here to Fairfield, expect to attend a meeting in Harrisburg on March 22, when representatives of many boroughs will attend an inquiry as to whether the finances of the State will permit of increased mileage to the present system of State Highways.

A subcommittee of the House Public Roads Committee will also attend for a discussion of House bill 139. This measure, introduced by Representative Evans, Montgomery, would require the State, at State expense, on request of boroughs, to improve any sections of State highways which pass over borough streets. The law now provides that the Highway Commission may improve such streets at expense of the Commonwealth and that State and borough shall share equally in the cost of maintenance. The Evans bill would apportion only ten per cent of maintenance cost to the borough.

Mr. Glatfelter and his associates expect to form a corporation so as to operate under both of the above certificates and to supply all needed service to the public.

PUSHING DRIVE FOR COLLEGE GYM

Small Basketball Floor at Present Hampers Training For Foreign Games.

SEATING CAPACITY SMALL

Reform Desired by Fraternity Members. Would Relieve Crowded Dormitories by Sleeping in Own Houses.

Efforts to obtain a new gymnasium at Gettysburg College are engaging the active attention of the student body, according to the new staff of the Gettysburgian, the weekly publication of that body.

While the paper states that no drive to obtain the needed funds is to be started at once, the campaign will be vigorously pushed in order to create a sentiment among the Alumni of the institution for this project which has assumed an important place in the desires of the student body for many years.

The present gymnasium has been used by the college for more than a quarter of a century, it is stated, having been converted from a museum into its present form. It originally was equipped with bowling alleys and the necessary appurtenances, but a 50-foot indoor target range has been fitted up on that floor to provide for the activities of the rifle teams.

The second floor is devoted almost exclusively to basketball. It would be the plan of the students to have the new building contain all the features of the original gymnasium and all those contained in the present one.

Basketball has so grown in popularity that seating accommodations are far from sufficient to handle the large crowds that attended every inter-collegiate game. The local floor is smaller than most college floors, and the team is correspondingly hampered in training for games away from home. In spite of this the past season closed with ten victories and three defeats.

At the time the new Y. M. C. A. building was erected on the campus, (Continued on Third Page)

Both were from Harrisburg.

Duncan, Esq., who on March 1 resigned his position to become effective March 31. Mr. Duncan will resume his law practice upon retiring from office.

Approval of Mr. Pepper's recommendation, it is said, has been given by the Post Office Department and it is expected Mr. Miller will be named acting postmaster until his appointment has been confirmed by the Senate.

Mr. Duncan was appointed Postmaster by President Wilson in April, 1914. He was re-appointed in 1920 for another four year term which does not expire until April, 1924.

BEST SPELLERS TO COMPETE HERE

Tenth Annual County Spelling Contest To Be Held Here April 7.

DISTRICT MEETS MARCH 31

Idea of Tests is to Find Best Speller in County. Who Will Be Awarded $10 in Gold.

Announcement was made today by W. Raymond Shank, county superintendent of schools, of the tenth annual district and county spelling contests. The district contests will be held simultaneously in the 37 school districts of the county on Saturday, March 31, with the county contest at the Court House here on Saturday, April 7.

The idea of the tests is to find the best speller in the public schools of Adams county. Ruth Myers, a pupil at Fairmount school, Menallen township, was the winner of the county contest last year.

A chairman has been appointed to conduct the spelling contests in each of the 37 districts. The chairman have been instructed to select two or more teachers to assist them in holding the tests.

Pamphlets containing one thousand words have been placed in most of the school rooms in the 37 school districts. The words were selected by Professor Shank and Professor Lloyd W. Keefe, assistant county superintendent of schools.

From this one thousand word list, the county superintendent will select a group of 100 words to send to the chairman of each school district on which will be conducted the district contests of March 31.

In order to compete in the county contest, the spellers must have made an average of 98 per cent or higher, in the district contests. The district contests will be held simultaneously on Saturday, April 7.

SCHOOL MONEY IS NOW ASSURED

Senators And Representatives Will Finance Full Program For Poorer Districts.

Full needs of the schools are to be provided for the next two years by raising additional revenues, according to a decision reached Tuesday by a special committee of Senators and Representatives. They have been engaged for several weeks with the problem of financing the education program.

The steps to be taken, it is declared, will not modify the Edmonds Act for school teachers' salaries, except in the smaller and poorer districts. The richer districts are not to be made to suffer.

Problems of the schools, tax and appropriations took up the greater part of the attention of the Legislature and State officials Tuesday. Chairman Woner, of the House Ways and Means Committee, has appointed a sub-committee which shall determine the exact amount of money which will be needed for the next two years, and whether permanent or temporary taxes should be levied.

ANOTHER HAS FEVER

Nelson Spielman, 9 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Spielman, of Centre Mills, has contracted scarlet fever. The school at Centre Mills, which was closed last week, will continue closed the remainder of this week, it was stated today.

SINGER WAS WELL RECEIVED TUESDAY

Ethelynde Smith In Recital At Brua Chapel Before Large Audience.

As the final number of the Gettysburg Artists' Course—third season—Ethelynde Smith appeared in Brua Chapel Tuesday night in a recital which was a delight from the opening number until the final encore. From the beginning, the large and appreciative audience began to demand encores, and were so insistent throughout that Miss Smith responded three times despite the fact that her program consisted of seventeen numbers.

Displaying great technique and unusual dramatic ability, Miss Smith sang her most difficult number of the evening—"The Grey Wolf" by H. T. Burleigh—with ease and grace. Her voice is remarkable for its purity of tone, flexibility and range. In both her high and low notes there is a consistent roundness and quality which is rare.

The arrangement and selection of her program numbers put her in the class of the musical psychologists. Beginning with some old classics, she gradually advanced her audience through French, Native, and Modern songs until she reached her climax in "The Grey Wolf". Then followed a number of children's songs, all of which were cleverly and artistically done.

It is difficult to select the most prominent numbers of the recital, but for beauty and loveliness, her rendition of "The Mother-Heart" by Samuel R. Gaines stood out a little above the rest; for technique and dramatic interpretation "The Grey Wolf" is to be preferred; and for its simplicity and rich meaning, "The Lamb" by John Denmore was the best of the children's songs.

Special mention must be made of Miss Smith's enunciation. In all of her numbers each and every word could be clearly grasped—an art which many singers have not acquired—and combined with all her excellent work was her strong personality which seemed to magnetize the audience.

At the piano, accompanying Miss Smith, was Mrs. Lillian Meyers Snyder, one of Gettysburg's most talented musicians, and a great part of the success of the program is due her for the capable manner in which she supported the soloist.

PROTECTION FOR CASHTOWN

Reservoir And Additional Water Mains Needed For Safety.

At a meeting of the Cashtown Water Company, held Tuesday evening at the home of George W. Schwartz, of that place, officers of the company made plans to place before the town a proposition to build a reservoir and additional water mains in the town.

It is stated that the town is almost without fire protection, and following a canvass of the residents to determine the consensus of opinion, a mass meeting will be called to take action on the proposal.

TO INVESTIGATE STEEL SELLING

Methods of Disposing of Stock And Other Finances Under Fire.

MAY DETERMINE ACTION

States Attorney General, of New York, Has Ordered Thorough Probe, And Will Act on Outcome.

(By Associated Press) Buffalo, Mar. 21.—State's Attorney General Sherman has ordered a complete investigation of the stock selling and other financial methods of the L. R. Steel Corporation, it was said at the office of the Steel receiver today.

Upon the result of this inquiry, it is understood, will depend whether action will be instituted against promoters of the Steel Company.

Twenty corporations comprising the Leonard R. Steel enterprises, into which the public put more than $20,000,000 in three years, were placed in the hands of receivers March 8. Ancillary receivers were named for the stores and branches of the Steel Company in other states.

The receivers' search for quick assets are said to have been disappointing, although no official statement on the audit now in progress has been made.

STOCK REPORT

Aggressive Operations On Long Side Occupy Interests.

(By Associated Press)

New York, March 20.—The strong resistance shown by yesterday's stock market to the selling pressure of frightened speculative and investment interests encouraged more aggressive operations on the long side, today, the demand embracing a wide variety of shares in both the rail and industrial list. Heavy accumulation of rails was attributed to speculative anticipation of unusual favorable February earnings' reports soon to be published. United States Steel, common, established a new peak price at 109 1/2 in response to the excellent cash position of the corporation shown in the annual report just issued. Independent steels, motors and motor accessories also took a prominent part in the upward swing. Call money opened at 5 per cent.

The area, which officials regard as the "wettest" in the country, is to be thoroughly worked over, it was said, and agents, who have indicated "lack of zeal," are scheduled for transfer and some for dismissal.

PLEA TO TEACHERS

(By Associated Press)

Baltimore, Mar. 21.—At a meeting of supervisors of education from various counties of the state which opened here today, Miss Emma Boettner, of Baltimore county, urged that teachers should be "good mixers," and should make themselves educational specialists, and should prescribe for the educational ills of a community just as the doctors do for the physical ills.

TALK ON PULLMAN STARTS TAX SUIT

Passengers' Discussion of Arizona Land Deal Overheard by Revenue Agent.

INVESTIGATION STARTED

Property Acquired For $500,000 Alleged to Have Sold For $2,202,000. Company Reported Deficit.

New York, March 21.—A casual conversation between passengers in a Western Pullman car a year ago, which was overheard by a Federal revenue agent, led to an investigation which resulted Tuesday in the filing in the Federal District Court of an equity income and excess profits tax suit for $1,790,842.44 with interest, from 450 individuals and corporations in the United States and Canada.

The defendants were stockholders in the Warren Realty and Development Company of Arizona, which, Assistant Federal Attorney House said Tuesday, was sold in April, 1917, for $2,202,000. The Government claimed the properties, largely Arizona copper mine claims, were acquired for a little more than $500,000 and that the company's 1917 tax return failed properly to show the profit resulting from the sale.

Details Overheard

Discovery of the alleged tax fraud, the Government attorney declared, was made by a field agent of the Internal Revenue Service, who, during the course of a conversation in a Western Pullman car, overheard details of the sale of the Arizona company and made a report, which formed the basis of the subsequent inquiry.

The Warren Realty and Development Company, according to the Government's complaint, was incorporated in 1905 and dissolved in 1917. After the sale of its properties, the proceeds were distributed among the stockholders.

Failed To Make Return

According to the complaint, the Warren Company failed entirely to include the profits resulting from the sale of its properties in its 1917 income. The tax return filed by the corporation for that year set forth a gross income of $4,268.66, and claimed deductions for general expenses and interests amounting to $33,691.37, leaving a total deficit for the year's operations, according to the return filed, of $29,422.71.

The Government's computation of the tax due states the corporation's taxable profits for 1917 was $1,498,633.03 and its invested capital $359,683.21. The total excess profits tax, as figured by the Government, is $856,918.34, and the income tax $38,502.88, making the total tax $895,421.22.

To this there has been added for the corporation's failure properly to return its income a penalty of 100 per cent, which, under the laws, is collectible in the same manner as the original tax, thus making the total amount sued for $1,790,842.44.

PRUNING DEMONSTRATIONS

First In Recent Years In County Will Be Held On Friday.

Adams county fruit growers will have an opportunity to learn proper methods of tree pruning in the first demonstrations of that art in recent years to be held in two orchards in the county on Friday. Professor Paul Thayer, extension pomologist of State College, will conduct the demonstrations.

The first pruning demonstration will be held in the orchard of McClinton Bucher, near Cashtown, at 9:30 o'clock, Friday morning, with the second demonstration at the orchard of C. A. Greist, Guernsey, at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Martin Nissley, manager of the Milk Products Company, and Frank Erway, field representative of that organization, discussed local milk producing and marketing problems with members of the committee.

Members of the local committee attending the conference were John C. Bream, C. N. Rhodes, J. I. Herter and John W. McIlhenny.

BRITISH DENY HUGHES' STORY

London Declares Gun Elevations And Ship Protections Are Not Increased.

Washington, Mar. 21.—The British Government has categorically denied that in a considerable number of capital ships in its navy bulges have been fitted, elevation of guns increased and turret-loading arrangements modified, as was represented by Secretary Hughes in his New Haven address last December.

Hughes Makes Correction

Secretary Hughes in a formal statement Tuesday announced that Great Britain had advised the State Department "that no alteration has been made in the elevation of the turret guns of any British capital ship since they were first placed in commission," and further "that no additional deck protection had been provided."

"It gives me pleasure," said Mr. Hughes, "to make this correction as it is desired that there should be no public misapprehension."

Based On Navy Office Report

The Secretary of State explained that his remarks at New Haven were based on specific information furnished him by the Navy Department, which believed it to be entirely trustworthy.

The announcement from the State Department was supplemented by one from the Navy Department, which said that information on which had been based the statement that guns on British capital ships had been given increased elevation was inaccurate, according to the British Admiralty. For this reason, the Navy Department added, it "takes pleasure in correcting its previous statement."

SEE DELAY TO BONUS

Ex-Servicemen's Hopes For Bonus From State Shattered.

Ex-servicemen of the county, who have had visions of a bonus granted them by the State, see a delay of at least two years in a suggestion made by Dr. Clyde King, secretary of the State, in a letter to Representative James Dunn, Philadelphia.

Dunn received a letter from Doctor King suggesting that approximately $3,900 could be saved the State in printing the proposed amendment calling for a bond issue of $35,000,000 for payment of the soldier's bonus, if the entire last paragraph were omitted.

If this omission were made, it is said the whole matter would have to be started at the beginning again and put through the legislative session of 1925 before being voted on by the people in 1926. As it is now the proposed issue will be passed upon at the elections of 1924.

CIVIL SERVICE FOR STATE

A bill providing for State civil service, preferred by the Pennsylvania Civil Service Association, was introduced Tuesday by Representative Ludlow, Montgomery County.

The bill was drafted by the Pennsylvania Civil Service Association after several months' study of problems involved in the employment of State workers. The measure is not designed to apply to school teachers or to any employees in the legislative or judicial branches of the State government.

The personnel commission would consist of three persons, to be appointed by the Governor with overlapping terms of six years, beginning July 1 next. The commission, under provisions of the bill, would be in a position to establish and maintain a roster of State employees and other personnel records.

PANAMA CANAL IS VULNERABLE

Admiral Jones Says Tests of Last Month Show Defenses Inadequate.

PLANES MAY BOMB LOCKS

Problem Worked Out on Assumption That Enemy Fleet Had Made Port at Culebra For a Base.

Albany, N. Y., March 21.—Henderson, Balboa, March 21.—Deficiencies in both land and air defenses, which have been disclosed by battle problems, were worked out here last month by the United States Fleet in conjunction with the Army forces, Secretary Denby and his Congressional party were told Tuesday by Admiral Jones, commander-in-chief of the fleet, in an address aboard the U. S. S. Henderson.

The conclusions reached, said Admiral Jones, were that Tobago Island, at the Pacific entrance to the canal, should be fortified with 16-inch guns to prevent any fleet bombarding Miraflores locks and thus blocking the canal. The necessity is to deny the enemy any base within striking distance of the canal.

The present fortifications on the Pacific are too closely grouped, the Admiral said, to defend the locks from sea attack and air forces are insufficient to protect the Gatun spillway and other vital parts from air raids. Scout cruisers and destroyers also are needed as eyes for the fleet defending the canal.

The problem, as worked out, assumed that an enemy fleet superior to the American forces available was undertaking to destroy the canal fleet and had evaded the defending sea forces and safely made Port Culebra, 400 miles from the canal. From that point bombing planes could be sent against the Atlantic entrance across Nicaragua, making a frontal attack on the canal behind a smoke screen, while the enemy fleet, out of range of present defenses, bombarded the locks and forts.

"PIGGY-WIGGLY" JUMPY

(By Associated Press)

New York, Mar. 21.—There was an active inquiry today in houses specializing in "over the counter" sales for the Piggy-Wiggly stock which was barred from the New York Stock Exchange yesterday after sensational fluctuations. At some of the houses the stock was quoted at 75 bid and 85 asked. Later other houses reported 100 bid and 150 asked. It was stated, however, that there had been no actual sales above 85.

Several outside houses reported sales ranging from 110 to 150. A settlement price has not yet been determined.

REDS' SECRET CODE IS SHOWN IN COURT

Justice Agent Morrow Translates Sand Dune Convention Report at Trial.

St. Joseph, Mich., March 21.—Flamboyant appeals by communists writers for "armed action, not armed phrases," praise for the miners who are alleged to have participated in the Herrin riot, and a call for "bullets—not ballots" featured yesterday's session of the trial of William Z. Foster, charged with criminal syndicalism.

The state, with the assistance of its star witness, Francis Morrow, who as "K-97," a Department of Justice agent, attended the communist convention in the hills near here last August as a delegate, put into the record a mass of speeches and writings of communists in this country.

Delves Into Proceedings

Morrow's testimony delved into the inner workings of the convention last summer. He testified that Foster was present from Friday, August 18, to Sunday, August 20, leaving Sunday morning a few minutes after two other Federal agents, Jacob Spolansky and Edward Shanahan, had been seen prying about the grounds.

Morrow identified a report presented to the convention showing membership conditions in the Fifth district—Chicago—where Foster, according to the evidence, was a paid official of the party. Part of the report was in code and he produced what he said was the secret code of the Communist party of America and translated the coded parts.

Money Order Blank Used

The code was nothing more or less than a blank application for a United States domestic money order—such as can be picked up from the counter in any postoffice in the country. A paragraph on the back, headed "Fees for Money Orders Drawn on Domestic Form," furnished the code.

On the convention reports was a row of fractions reading: "7-6, 7-7, 6-1, 7-2, 6-2, 6-7, 3-5, 10-2, 8-1, 7-6, 7-5"

The first fraction, Morrow testified, meant the seventh line down, sixth letter to the right. Deciphering the code, he spelled out the words "Labor Herald," the name of a Communist paper of Chicago, of which Foster is the editor.

TELLS INSIDE OF "HOUSE OF DAVID"

Claims Leader Lived in Splendor While His Followers Suffered From Starvation.

(By Associated Press)

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 21.—Testimony intended to show that Benjamin Purnell, head of the Israelite House of David colony at Benton Harbor, "lived in regal splendor while his followers lacked plates from which to eat their carrots and turnips," was introduced in the federal court here today in the suit instituted by John Hansell and his wife against the cult.

The testimony was given by Mrs. Emma Lozette, of Newark, New Jersey, former evangelist for the sect, and a witness for the plaintiffs.

The plaintiff is attempting to procure $80,000 from Purnell, which is claimed to be a sum due them for property turned over to him, and for labor performed while they were members of the colony.

"One winter the colony had a hard time to keep body and soul together," Mrs. Lozette testified. "We nearly starved, but Benjamin and his wife lived like lords. They drank cream and ate California fruit out of season on a table set with costly silver."

A "spy" system existed in the colony, by which Purnell learned of every bit of gossip which went the rounds of his followers, she said. She also said a mock trial board existed, and secret punishments were inflicted. "Purnell's cellar was full of beer, which he drank saying it would clean his soul," Mrs. Lozette testified, "and he also chewed tobacco when he thought no one was looking."

Abstinence from alcoholic liquors and tobacco are two of the tenets of the religious organization.

When Camp Colt was erected at Gettysburg during the war years of 1917 and 1918 the Gettysburg Post Office, without adding appreciably to its regular force, did an unprecedented business and this same force during the Christmas rushes of 1921 and 1922 handled record volumes of mail.

It was proposed that a new gymnasium be incorporated in the plans, but this was found to be unfeasible. A swimming pool, which would be a normal part of gymnasium equipment, was installed, however.

Dormitory Space

The campaign to secure permission for fraternity members to room in their houses is also being carried on through the columns of the paper.

At the present time, with dormitory space at a premium, concessions have been made by the board of trustees which allow more than two custodians in each house, but this does not completely satisfy the desires of the fraternity members.

The organizations are rapidly acquiring homes with from four to eight bedrooms and they want permission to have these occupied.

Arguments of the trustees against the plan consist, in part, of the contention that fraternity dormitory life will destroy the democratic spirit prevailing among the college students, and will tend to snobbishness, which has so far been absent here in fraternity circles.

In the district contests, the chairman of the district or an assistant will pronounce the words. In the county contest, Professors Shank and Keefe will take turns as pronouncers. The spellers will compete until only one remains standing. This person will be declared the county's champion speller.

Judges for the county contest will be Clarence P. Keefer, New Oxford; Elora W. Witherow, Menallen township; Estella M. Hale, Hamilton township; Myrtle L. Sheely, Cumberland township, and Fred W. Shearer, of Fairfield.

Winners in the district and part 1 of the county contest will be awarded spelling certificates. The three best spellers in the second part of the county contest will be entitled to cash prizes of $10, $5, and $2.50 gold pieces.

The men will take up the buying of fertilizer for this spring's use at this meeting.

MUST GET LAWYER

Judge Ross in Hanover court on Monday refused to accept a plea of not guilty from Kenneth Adams, Gettysburg, who is charged with giving two checks, one for $15 and the other for $66, without having sufficient funds to meet them. From Adams' statement there seemed a doubt whether he was technically guilty and he was sent back to jail with instructions to employ a lawyer.

Mrs. Sanders scarcely breathed, awed into motionlessness by the depth of the anguish which she had unwittingly stirred. Her own grief was swallowed up in the grief of another.

At last Mrs. Penfield turned and came back. She walked firmly. Her eyes were brimming with tears, but there was a smile on her lips.

"I'm sorry I went to pieces so," she apologized. "I aim to keep my will power pressed down on my feelings; but if I take it off the least bit, they boil up as furious as ever. You mustn't think I'm complaining. I did for a spell, but I learned better."

"Sit down," begged Mrs. Sanders. "I want to tell you how I hate myself for being so selfish. I wouldn't have hurt you for the world. But I never dreamed—you're always so cheerful!"

"I'm cheerful, yes," acknowledged Mrs. Penfield sadly, "but once I was happy. I tell you what, Mrs. Sanders, you can be suspicious of the fellow that's cheerful. He's been through something. Happiness is a thing that bubbles up naturally before you've had much experience, but cheerfulness is a thing you've reasoned out and stand by 'cause you believe it's right. There's a kind of happiness that never comes back, once it's gone."

They sat in silence for a moment, in closer communion than words had ever brought them.

"I know now," said Mrs. Sanders gently, "why you took those children."

An irradiated expression came into Mrs. Penfield's face. "Yes, you know now. I didn't do it at first. I got a position as housekeeper in a wealthy family. But I couldn't be satisfied, just supporting myself. I had to make a home again—and for somebody that didn't have one. Way it is, when you lose them that's dear to you, it kind of opens your heart wider, and you got more love for more folks—stead of less. When I had children of my own, I thought 'bout them; but when I lost 'em, I began to think 'bout all the children, everywhere—specially those that was handicapped and forlorn and didn't have a chance to grow up true to the souls that the Lord gave 'em. I came to see that I'd got to make a home for some of 'em, so I gave up my position and hunted up Crink, and then Thad. I can't earn so much money this way and it costs more to live, but I feel easier."

The hysterical frenzy had died out of Mrs. Sanders' expression. She looked as if she had laid hold of peace and poise. She took Mrs. Penfield's hand in both her own.

"You will always be my friend," she said simply. "You've made me see how wrong I been going—letting my feelings collect inside of me till they fermented. Only way to keep 'em sweet is to let 'em out—work 'em off for somebody else. I'm going to try—and whenever I feel—that way again, I'll think 'bout how much more unhappy you are—"

"No," interposed Mrs. Penfield quickly, "you're not to think I'm unhappy. I'm not—now. Maybe I seemed to say I was, but 'twasn't what I meant. I'm happy—but it's a different kind of happiness. That's all."

"Yes," breathed Mrs. Sanders, "that's—that's all."

CLEVELAND SIX

The Quality Makes the Price More Startling

WHEN you hear a man speak of a quality car, you instinctively know it has more than four cylinders.

But do you know that of the quality cars, 75% are powered by six cylinder motors? And that of 68 such cars costing between $1500 and $10,800, only five are fours? Obviously there is an established preference for the six.

And if you ride in a Cleveland Six, you will understand why.

You will find a motor that takes hills without a flying start and that makes traffic driving a matter of using the accelerator, and not the gear shift.

You will find singularly attractive Fisher-built bodies—gracefully proportioned, attractively finished, comfortably upholstered and completely appointed.

You will find the Cleveland Six chassis so staunch and rugged that it delivers thousands of miles without even minor adjustments.

Down to the smallest detail, you will find the Cleveland Six characterized by the fine craftsmanship which is the only basis of quality—and the only basis of lasting satisfaction.

And that is why its price is startling.

"Rick" Buckley Says Stomach Was in Awful Condition But Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup Straightened Him Out. Feels Like Fighting Cock Now.

"I tell you what, there's nothing like Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup to fill you full of 'pep'; why, since taking it I feel like a fighting cock," said "Rick" Buckley, a popular employee of the P. R. R., living at 18 N. 56th street, Philadelphia.

"A few months ago my stomach got in an awful fix. I had no appetite and what little I did eat soured and made me miserable. Constipation bothered me, too, and I suffered from fierce headaches nearly every day.

"Then my back would hurt me at times till I could hardly stand it and I'd roll and toss half the night trying to get a little sleep. Boils broke out on me and I am sure my blood was in bad condition.

"My sister had been taking Dr.

Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup and when I saw how much good it was doing her I got myself a bottle. Well, it sure fixed me up fine so I can eat what I want and have no more trouble. It sure has made a new man of me and I'm glad to recommend it."

Blackheaded Pimples Quit With S. S. S.

Why? Pimple-Poison Goes When Red-Blood-Cells Increase! S. S. S. Builds These Red-Blood-Cells.

You can be sure of this, nature has no substitute for red-blood-cells. Pimple-poison can't live in the red rivers of your blood as long as there are enough rich red-blood-cells in it. More red-blood-cells!

of a blemished face!*

That is what you need when you see pimples staring at you in the mirror. Black-headed pimples are worse! Eczema is worse yet! You can try everything under the sun—you'll find only one answer, more cell-power in your blood! The tremendous results, produced by an increase in red-blood-cells is one of the A. B. C's of medical science. Red-cells mean clear, pure rich blood. They mean clear, ruddy, lovable complexions. They mean nerve power, because all your nerves are fed by your blood. They mean freedom forever from pimples, from the black-head pest, from boils, from eczema and skin eruptions, from rheumatism impurities, from that tired, exhausted, run-down feeling. Red-blood-cells are the most important thing in the world to each of us. S. S. S. will build them for you. S. S. S. has been known since 1826, as one of the greatest blood-builders, blood-purifiers and system strengtheners ever produced. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.
